The Kings County Board of Supervisors ordered

The Kings County Board of Supervisors ordered yesterday that the county offices be closed at 11 a. m. on May 2 and that the Court House be decorated and dimminated at a c st of $100. Dahigren Post No. 113, G.A. R. recently passed resolutions "condemming and deeply deploring the acts of the East River Bridge trustees in selecting the Quien's Birchday for opening the bridge, and their "iack of common courtesy, patriotism and public spirit" in neglecting to reply to the written request of the Mean rial Committee to have the bridge opened on Decoration Day.

REPORTS ABOUT TWO DEPARTMENTS.

The Commissioners of Accounts sent to the Mayor yes'erday the result of their investigations into the management of the Property Bureau in the Police Department. They find that the methods of the office are very detective in preventing loss to the city. The commissioners are unable to state that any loss has really occurred, but owing to the methods of transacting the business of the bureau it would be impossible to tell whether or not there has been any loss.

There was a report about the City Hall that the Coranissioners of Accounts had made a report to the Mayer showing a larger loss by the Carroll defalcation in the Controller's office than has herelofore been reported. The Mayor said that no such report had been made to him, and he did not think that there was any foundation for the story that the city's loss was greater than already reported. One of the commissioners said that the report would not be ready for transmission to the Mayor before the close of the week.

SHOT WITHOUT PROVOCATION.

Recorder Greaves, of Paterson, was summoned to st. Joseph's Hospital yesterday to take the antemortem statement of William Williamson, who was shot last. Sunday evening with a revolver by Detective Bauman. The affair was not considered aerious at the time, as the buliet lodged in the left shoulder; but inflammation set in, and yesterday Williamson's condition was so critical that his ant—mortem deposition was taken, the chances being against his recovery. The story is that Williamson, who is a boiler-maker living in Oil City, Penn., was in Paterson, looking for work. In a higher store kept by Bauman in Fitth-ave., he displayed a counterfeit half-dollar. Bauman was not in the place at the time, but a man named Bush told him, and the two men followed Williamson and seized him. Then while Bauman held his prisoner with one hand, he shot him with the pistol which he haid in the other. Bauman was arrested on a charge of atrocious assault, but was released on bail.

FOUR PERSONS SAVED FROM DROWNING. FOUR PERSONS SAVED FROM DROWNING.

An insane woman jumped into the East River from the sea wall of the Lunatic Asylum on Blackwell's Island yesterday afternoon, with the intention of drowning herself. Deputy Warden Osborne, who saw her jump, ran to the wall and plunged into the water to rescue her. A man from the Work House followed his example. While the two men were struggling with the woman, James Mullane, one of the guards, got into a boat and rowed toward them. He had not gone far when the steamboat C. H. Northam came in sight, and so intent was Mulane on reaching the Daputy Warden, that he did not notice the steamboat until it was too late to get out of the way. Consequently his boat was upset and the waves made by the steamer submerged the four persons. All had narrow escapes from drowning; but fortunately, their plight was subcovered by men on a passing tugboat and they all were rescued.

BEQUEATHING A LARGE ESTATE. BEQUEATHING A LARGE ESTATE.

The will of the late Elizabeth McEvers Bayard was filed yesterday for probate. The testatrix was a daughter of James McEvers, who, by a will made in 1817, left her a large estate during life with power to dispose of it by will. She devises all her estate, real and personal, including the estate derived under her father's will, to her nusband, Robert Bayard. In the event of the death of her husband, the estate was to go to her grandsons, William Bayard Cruting, Robert Fulton Cutting and McEvers Bayard Brown, with remainders to the survivors in the event of the death of any of the grandsons without issue. The will bears date July 9, 1873, Robert Bayard and William Bayard Cutting are named as executors. The estate disposed of by Mrs. Bayard is said to be a very large one.

EXCELLENT PRICES FOR JERSEY CATTLE.

The sale of a herd of Jersey cattle imported by T.
S. Cooper last November was begun at the American Institute Building yesterday. There was a large attendance and an average of about $825 was obtained for the animals sold. A sort of ambhither attendance and an average of about $825 was obtained for the animals sold. A sort of ambhither attendance received at one end of the large hall, and into this sawdust-strewn arena were led the Jerseys as they were offered for sale. There were all kinds, from frisky young calves which "cavorted" around the ring as if they thought the affair was a circus in which they were expected to act, to staid old buils that took everything as a matter of course and looked bered. In the veins of many of the animals slowed the blood of the celebrated cows Coomassie and Eurotas and the buil Pedro. Pedro was present at the sale, on exhibition merely. The first cow sold was Concorde, a beautiful fawn-colored animal with a white spot on the forchead. She was bought by Wallace Barnes, of Bristol, Conn., for $335. The cow Falcon, bred by Francis Le Broca, of St. Peter's, was sold to A. M. sicdiregor, of this city, for $375. The cow Falcon, bred by Francis Le Broca, of St. Peter's, was sold to A. WAS THE DISMISSAL A PROPER ONE?

George W, Kidd, a wine merchant at No. 35
Water-st, called at the District-Attorney's office yesterday to inquire about an indictment which had been found in 1879 against Isaac Bristow, who was charged with embezzlement. Assistant District-Attorney Fellows was counsel for Bristow before Mr. McKeon came into office, and after Mr.
Fellows became connected with the office the indictment was discussed. The complaining witness against Bristow was Oscar Hoyt. The indictment charges that Bristow embezzled over $7,000 of trust funds which came into his bands assigned of the bankrupt firm of Stockbridge & Martin.
The indictment contains an indorsement by which of the backrupt firm of Stockbridge & Marin. The indictment contains an indorsement by which Mr. McKeon asks leave of the Court to enter a noile prosequi on the statements made in a letter from Sidney A. Stewart, the counsel for the man who is alleged to have urged the prosecution. Mr. Stewart in his letter says that he has become convinced that the matter is merely a personal one between Kidd and Bristow. Colonel Fellows said yesterday that the indictment was dismissed because he was convinced that Kidd would not continue the prosecution, as the money which Bristow had in trust had been invested in the business which he carried on as Kidd's partner. The partnership between Kidd and Bristow had been dissolved and there was litigation about the money for which Kidd was in some way a surety. He thought the dismissal a proper one. sal a proper one.

ROBBING LE BOUTILLIER BROTHERS.

ROBBING LE BOUTILLIER BROTHERS.

Two young clerks, G. R. Cummus and F. B. Tutts, employed in the store of Le Boutilier Brothers, were locked up at Police Headquarters on Wednesday night on a charge of embezzlement. With the assistance of a woman, who purchased some silk at the store on Wednesday and ordered it sent to her house, "C. O. D." the police had caught the clerks in the act of collecting money for the firm without authority. The prisoners confessed that they had been appropriating small sums collected in that way for about two weeks. Their confession also implicated E. J. Foster, another clerk, who was arrested at the store yesterday morning. The entire amount of the embezzlement, thus nipped in the bud, was believed to be less than $50. The plan of the clerks was to take small parcels, which customers ordered sent to their homes, and to deliver them in the evening instead of sending them through the delivery department. At the Fombs Police Court Fours and Cummings acknowledged their guilt and were each committed for trial in default of $300 bail. The other prisoner, Foster, denied that he was concerned in the theits and demanded and examination, pending which he was admitted to bail.

ON TRIAL FOR CUSTOM HOUSE FRAUDS.

The trial of the charges against Frederick A.
Cocheu, a damage examiner in the Custom House and a well-known Brooklyn politician, was begun yesterday before Judge Benedict in the United States Circuit Court. He is charged with having made false reports as to the damage done to certain cargoes of potatoes imported to this country for Alexander Rhind. The alleged undervaluation was on importations in the Crest, from Leith, Scotland, Yesterday was principally occupied with the evidence of Castom House officers who testified as to the methods of the office in appraising cargoes of merchandise. Customs Broker Coit testified that he took from the files of the Custom House a damage allowance which concerned some of the importations. He thought he had returned it to the Custom House by a messenger, but did not know to what department he sent it. The trial was not finished. ON TRIAL FOR CUSTOM HOUSE FRAUDS.

THE GRAYLING AGAIN AFLOAT. THE GRAYLING AGAIN AFLOAT.

The sunken yacht Grayling appeared above water last evening about one mile north of Fort Hamilton. When the tide began to fail the deck was seen to be strewn with a mass of snarled and tern fragments of rigging. The wire gnys were knotted and bedraggied, while the splintered, snapped spars showed the force with which the large steamer must have swept through the mastheads. The elegant gilt littings shone brightly in contrast with the general besmeared look of everything else. Boatmen did a thriving business ferrying people out to the wreek. At 7 o'clock pumping begin, and in two hours the Grayling floated. It is intended to place her on the ways at Poillon's yard to-day. Mr. Hopkins, who entertained Mr. Fish last night, stated that the Poillon's had agreed to refit the yacht by Decoration Day.

THE ROMANCES OF AN UMBRELLA-MENDER. S. F. Duraud, in his travels in search of umbrellas that needed repairing, arrived in Newburg, N. Two months later Margaret discovered that she occupied months rater Margaret discovered that she occupied only a second place in the heart of the unbrellamender, as he was already possessed of a wife when he married her. The interview which followed was so unpleasant that Durand took "French leave," and for months nothing more was heard of him. Recently Margaret learned that he was living him. Recently Margaret learned that he was living at No. 160 East Thurty-first-st, and coming to New-York, caused his arrest. He was arrangued before Justice Fierrman in the Yorkville Police Court yesterday and held in $2,000 bail for trial.

REGISTER'S OFFICE NOTES. William Steinway, as president of the German Liedersrauz Society, has sold the old club rooms of the society on the north side of Fourth-st., about 150 feet west of the Bowery, for $61,500 to Martin

Eaton for $5.500, subject to a mortgage for $12,000, and agree to indemnify the purchaser against any lien or judgment that may be found against it.

ELIZABETH AND ITS CREDITORS.

ELIZABETH AND ITS CREDITORS.

A meeting of the creditors and bondholders of the City of Elizabeth will be held at No. 137 Broadway to-day to consider what is to be done in view of the failure of the various plans of settlement that have been proposed. The City Council of Elizabeth have been proposed. The City Council of Elizabeth have been sitting in secret tenclave several times of late discussing the crisis presented by the possibility of a service of the mandamness to which the courts have held that Mr. McKenzie, the Singer Manufacturing Company, and other large creditors are entitled. Their deliberations have not, however, so far as Is known, yielded any new plan to take the place of the failed 50 cents proposition.

There has been some concern among the small tradesmen of the city lest the troubles over the debt should result in the closing by the Singer Company of their extensive works at Elizabethoort. Until a short time ago the company employed 3,000 persons at their works and paid them wages amounting to more than $30,000 a week. Their work-people were carried away from New-York in 1873. The majority of them have found homes in Elizabeth, but a great many still come back to New-York and Brooklyn for their ledging, there being a great searcity of cheap dwellings in Elizabeth. There has been some talk that the Singer Company's disaffection might grow to such dimensions that they would withdraw the great help to the city that the factory affords.

Mr. McKenzie said on this point to a Tribune teporter yesterday: "I will not say that we will stop work at Elizabeth, but we will certainly nut push it. Since the threats of repudiation were brist made we have built works at Montreal and Glasgow, and we are now building a foundry on the outskirts of Vienna. We have factories, too, at South Bend, Ind., and Cairo, Ill., and the aggressive acts against us may become sufficiently harmful to compel as to leave in self-detens. They are threatening to increase the tax valuation on the property trom $750,000 to two or t

A CHILD HEIRESS AND HER MOTHER.

A CHILD HEIRESS AND HER MOTHER.
The case of Mabel Winans, age nine, an adopted daughter of David Winans, a wealthy resident of Orange N. J. now dead, has been before the New-Jersey courts for some time and from the romantic circumstance attending it has created a wide interest. The girt is a daughter of an Irish widow named Mary Luppe, whose husband was an Iralian and who was a servant in the Winans family. Her infant child attracted the attention of Mr. Winans and his wife, who were childless, and the mother consented to its adoption by them. The child was treated as a daughter and Mary Luppe having left the service of the family Mabet became completely estranged from her mother, who is a Roman Catholic. The woman, however, had a brother who induced her to demand the surrender of the child, and this being refused, she kidnapped Mahel, and her brother took the child to Sussex County and placest her in the care of a relative. Str. Winons thereupen employed detectives and legan proceedings before Chancellor Runyon. The child was found and produced in court, the Chan cellor adulting the custody of her to the guardian until the case should be settled in the Orphans Court of Essex County. Judge McCarter, the presiding Judge of this cour; held the matter under advisement for some time, and then decided in favor of the guardian. An appeal was taken from Judge McCarter's decision on the ground that the letters of guardianship had been granted without notice to the child's mother. While the appeal was pending Mr. Winans died, bequeathing one-sixth of his property to Mabel. Chancellor Runyon has new decided that as the consent of the mother had not been obtained as required by the stante the letters must be rovoked, although the child had been left by the mother with its guardian for several years and educated by him.

DOGS DOING POLICE DUTY.

Sergeant Stevens, of the Sanitary Police, recently made a complaint that two large and vicious dogs, kept in the dvc-house of Sebasuan Rau, at No. 425 West Thirty-fifth-st., batked and howled so much at night that the inmates of adjoining houses could not sleep, and an order for the removal of the dogs was issued by the Board of Health. Mr. Rau's partner went to the Sanitary Burcan yesterday and said the dyc-house had been invaled by burglars three times within two years. The dogs were kept there to guard the place, because the police had not been able to protect it. Sergeant Sievens, who lives next door to the dyc-house, will try to have the order enforced. The case will be brought to the attention of the Board of Health next week.

Galieries for the exhibition and sale of pictures are to be opened, and a beneyolent fund for the benefit of artists is to be established. E. Wood Perry, ir., A. D. Shattick, W. H. Beard, W. H. Bristol, Frederick Dichiman, Thomas U. Wood and Walter Shirlaw are the corporators. They and Daniel Huntington, Albert Bier tast and Eastman Johnson are the trustees for the first year.

THE SALVATION ARMY IN COURT.

Eight officers and privates of the Salvation Army, dressed in uniform and marching in excellent order, entered the Court of General Sessions yesterday, Henry P. Studdiford, one of their number, was accused of assault, and the others were witnesses in his behalf. The complaint against Studdiford charge i that on February 6 the Salvation soldier had used an unsairmal weapon—a pistol—to vanquish an enemy. The members of the army assert that Michael E. Reilly, who made the complaint, had invaded their burracks and that the only force used was to repel his invasion. As the case was not called the soldiers retired from the court-room.

It was reported to the police yesterday by William Rickman, of No. 1,005 Flushing-ave., that his nicee, Emma Stallhaltz, age eight, who was living with Mrs. Emma Blank, of No. 88 Cook-st., had been abducted by her brother, Max Stallhaltz, of New-York. It appears that the girl had lived with the latter until recently, when her uncle, having secured letters of guardianship from the Surrogate, found a home for her in Brooklyn. She did not return from school yesterday, and was last seen at Cook-st. and Bushwick-ave. with a young man believed to be her brother.

JERSEY CITY.

The attention of the Hudson County Grand Jury was called yesterday to the Sunday liquor law. The names of forty five rum-shop keepers whose places were opened on Sunday last were given to the jury and Judge Knapp charged them in recard to their duty in the matter. There are eight liquor dealers on the Grand Jury.

SCROFULA

" My wife was sick five years, her troubles being a combins tion of acrofula, dyspepsis, indigestion, and costiveness, with no appetite, doubtless all resulting from scrofula. She run down so low that she was poor, weak, and could neither cat nor sleep. Of course t spent a good deal of miney and em-pioved physicians, medicines, and everything. Through th nfluence of Mr. Pitkin she tried HOOD'S SAUSAPARILLA from the very start this seemed to hit the spot, and of her. Now she is strong, robust, and fleshy, and HOOD'S SAUSAPARILIA did it. It's the same old story, but it's just as frue for all that, 'tried everything and everybedy without relief; took HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA and go well. You have an excellent medicine and ought to pash it.

Wishing you success, I am very truly yours,

A. I., FISH, Chelsea, Vt."

NOTE.—Mr. Fish has since moved from Chelsea, Vt., to Central City, Neb.-C. I. H. & CO.

THE COLOR OF YOUR CRAVAT IS WORTHY OF A LITTLE THOUGHT, AND AS ALL MEN HAVE NOT A NATURAL TASTE IN COMBIN-ING OR CONTRASTING COLORS, WE VENTURE SOME HINTS ON THE SUBJECT.

A MAN OF DARK COMPLEXION, WITH BLACK OR GRAY HAIR AND BEARD, NEEDS THE RELIEF OF STRONG, BRIGHT COLORS; RED IS ESPECIALLY BECO ING AND VERY POPULAR THIS SEASON. A DECIDED BLONDE MAY ALSO WEAR HIGH COLORS AS A CONTRAST TO THE LIGHT HAIR AND FAIR SKIN, PROVIDED HE BE A DRESSY MAN-OTHER-WISE HE SHOULD AFFECT QUIET SHADES. YOUR SANDY-COMPLEXIONED MAN, WITH REDDISH HAIR OR WHISKERS, SHOULD SELECT DARK COLORS OF NO DECIDED TINT; AND IF HE WANTS SOMETRING A LITTLE MORE SHOWY, LET HIM CHOOSE AN INDIGO BLUE OR ONE OF THE WARM ER BROWN SHADES, BUT NEVER A FLAMING RED. SUCH COLORS AS GRAY, PURPLE, LAVEN-DER AND LILAC SHOULD BE ESCHEWED BY ALL MEN OF TASTE, THE NEW "CRUSHED" SHADES, WHICH THE CHARM OF FAIR WOMEN CAN BARELY SUSTAIN. HAVE NOT YET BEEN IN-FLICTED UPON US. AND WE DOUBT IF THE NECK-WEAR MANUFACTURERS HAVE THE TEMERITY TO INTRODUCE THEM.
